

It is tradition to begin worship in quiet contemplation accompanied by music. The formal service begins with the singing of a hymn from the Liturgy. You can follow the order of service by turning to the numbers given on the facing page of this pamphlet. These numbers are also displayed on boards hung in various locations.

We do not pass a collection basket during the service. Offertory bowls are located at each entrance for donations to support this church and the useful activities it serves. Donate online at www.brynathynchurch.org.

After the worship service, please join us outdoors in the Cloister for refreshments and conversation. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to approach today's minister or a staff member. We'd love to meet you!

Teachings of the New Church

The more we follow Divine Order or the Divine Design in the way we live, the more wisdom about goodness and truth we receive from God. The mind has the capability of being raised to higher and higher levels. Then again, the mind can also be brought down to lower and lower levels. As our minds are raised to the higher levels, we come into wisdom, because we come into the light of heaven. As long as we are living in the world, we all walk midway between heaven and hell. We can freely choose to look either upward to God or downward to hell. When we look upward to God, we recognize that all wisdom is from God and that as to our spirits we are actually with angels in heaven.

Minister's prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in the heavens, hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven so upon the earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we also forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
